Rob and Ken,

No need to get me the information on NYCO holdings near or adjacent to the Jay Mountain Wilderness. If you open the attached map, you will notice a very interesting NYCO parcel outlined in yellow to the south and west of the Seventy Lane mine site. It has Mill Brook running through it and would provide hiker parking access for a trail up Slip Mountain from the south, access that is needed. Parcels 48 and 49 adjoin the Jay Wilderness on the north side and are owned by the Ward Lumber Company and would provide needed access to the Jay Range from the north. Parcel 8 is 8,000 acres and would extend public ownership of the Jay Range and several smaller peaks that Stu Mesinger says have great views. Parcel 8 is owned by Keith Gutches, Sr and is believed to be too steep to log, a partial purchase might be possible. See email below from NYCO's Peter Goodwin and the map he sent to me.

best, Neil
