Re: In the Matter of the Application of Unconventional
Concepts, Inc. and Michael Hopmeier
APA Project No. 2021-0276

Dear Executive Director Rice:

Protect the Adirondacks (PROTECT) is in receipt of the letter of today's date from Matthew Norfolk, Esq., counsel for the applicants in the above-referenced proceeding, purporting to challenge the qualifications of Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) David N. Greenwood and demanding that the pre-hearing issues conference scheduled by ALJ Greenwood for tomorrow, January 21, at 1:00 p.m. be adjourned without date.

Both requests must be denied because Mr. Norfolk's purported qualification challenge fails to comply with the APA regulations governing such challenges, and Mr. Norfolk thus has no ground demanding that tomorrow's pretrial issues conference be adjourned without date.

Mr. Norfolk states that his challenge to the qualifications of ALJ Greenwood is submitted pursuant to 9 NYCRR § 580.8(b). That regulation specifies that a challenge to an ALJ's qualifications can only be made "by filing the affidavit referred to in section 303 of the State Administrative Procedure Act." Section 303 of the State Administrative Procedure Act, in turn, provides that a challenge to designation of an ALJ requires "the filing in good faith by a party of a timely and sufficient affidavit of personal bias or disqualification of a presiding officer." (Emphasis added).

Mr. Norfolk has failed to submit the affidavit required by the Agency's regulations and the State Administrative Procedure Act. His purported challenge is therefore fatally defective and must be denied. There is thus no basis for adjourning tomorrow's pretrial issues conference pending resolution of Mr. Norfolk's procedurally improper challenge.

Respectfully submitted,
